RESPONSE TO RESTRICTION REQUIREMENT

Sir:

In response to the restriction requirement issued in the above-identified application on February 26, 2007, it is respectfully submitted that an inadvertent typing error occurred in our reply to the First Restriction Requirement filed on December 14, 2006. Namely, it was indicated in the reply that the Applicants hereby provisionally elect GROUP II, drawn to a digital camera module, classified in class 348, subclass 340, without traverse, which is our true intention and is consistent with the Group identification stated by the Examiner Cutler in the First Restriction Requirement. However, instead of indicating relevant claim numbers as 1-5, the claims numbers 5-10 have been inadvertently typed in.

It is respectfully submitted that the error was inadvertent and unintentional, and it is respectfully requested that the election of Group II be acknowledged.

Respectfully submitted
GOTTLIEB, RACKMAN & REISMAN, P.C.
